POSITIONS OF RESPONSIBILITIES

CREATIVE COORDINATOR

TEAM PROMETHEAN / 2022-2023

1. Instagram Story Creation: You were responsible for creating Instagram Stories for various festivals and events. This likely involved designing eye-catching graphics, selecting suitable fonts, and creating engaging content to promote the events on Instagram.

2. Canva: You mentioned using Canva, which is a popular graphic design tool. This suggests that you had design skills and used this platform to craft visually appealing content.

3. Event Decoration: You were also involved in the hands-on aspect of event preparation and execution. This might involve decorating event spaces, ensuring they are visually appealing and align with the event theme, and contributing to the overall ambiance.

4. Idea Curation: Curating ideas for one-day events suggests that you were involved in brainstorming and conceptualizing event themes, activities, and elements. This is essential for creating memorable and engaging events.

MARKETING COORDINATOR

CSI SIES GST / 2023-2024

1. Marketing: Your responsibilities included going out into the field for marketing purposes. This likely involved promoting events, activities, or opportunities related to CSI (Computer Science and/or Crime Scene Investigation) within your college or community. Effective marketing would help raise awareness and interest in CSI-related initiatives.

2. Sponsorship Acquisition: You were tasked with collecting sponsors. This would involve identifying potential sponsors, approaching them, and negotiating sponsorship agreements. Securing sponsors is vital for financing events and activities conducted by your team.

3. Global Industry Seminars: It appears that you were also involved in reaching out to global-level industries to invite them to conduct seminars at your college. This is a valuable initiative as it provides students with exposure to industry experts and real-world insights, enhancing their educational experience.
